

Master's Program in Sport and Olympic Studies, Degree Programs in Comprehensive Human Sciences,
Graduate School of Comprehensive Human Sciences, University of Tsukuba

[Curriculum and Requirements for Completion]

Program		Master's Program in Sport and Olympic Studies
Categories	Subject Group	Terms and Name of Courses (Number of Credit)	Credits
Foundation Subjects for Major	Sport and Olympic Studies Subjects	Olympic Movement Studies (1) Compulsory	11
		Olympic Movement and Sport Law (1) Compulsory
		International Sport Event Management (1) Compulsory
		Anti-Doping (1) Compulsory
		Japanese Culture (1) Compulsory
		Sport and Diversity (1) Compulsory
		Olympic and Paralympic Education (1) Compulsory
		Taiku (Physical Education) (1) Compulsory
		Cross-Cultural Communication (1) Compulsory
		Research Project Management (2) Compulsory
Major Subject	Sport and Olympic Studies Subjects	Common Subjects
		TIAS Internship A (4)	8
		TIAS Internship B (4)
		TIAS Research Project (4)
		Research Major [Seminar]		4
		Olympic and Paralympic Education	Seminar in Olympic and Paralympic Education I (2)
		Sport Management (Sport Business, Policy and Governance)	Seminar in Olympic and Paralympic Education II (2)
		Sport Science and Medicine	Seminar in Sport Management I (2)
		Teaching, Coaching and Japanese Culture	Seminar in Sport Management II (2)
		Research Major		6~
		Sport Science and Medicine
		Teaching, Coaching and Japanese Culture
		Olympism and Legacy (1)
		Sport Organisation and Governance (1)
		International Sport Marketing (1)
Sport Technology, Biomechanics, and exercise physiology (1)
Sport Medicine (1)
Elite Sport Coaching (1)
Budo (1)
Olympic and Paralympic History(1) or Subjects offered in other Graduate Programs			1~
Credits for Completion			30~
[Requirements for Completion]
Students are required to enroll in the program for at least two years and to take the prescribed majors and acquire 30 credits or more. Students are also required to author the final report, passing the evaluation and success in the final examination.
[Remark]
It is preferable to take one (1) credit from Interdisciplinary Foundation Courses or Graduate General Education Courses. Credits for Completion may include up to ten (10) credits from subjects offered in other Graduate Programs if it is deemed to be effective from an educational standpoint.				